

MAT says a return is missing for a tax period, but I was not required to file a return that year, what should I do?

The MAT system only recognizes that a return is missing. It does not take into account whether or not you met the filing requirement for that particular tax period. If you were not required to file a tax return for that tax year, please disregard the notification.